In witness whereof, said parties have caused these presents to be signed in duplicate by their respective Presidents, and duly countersigned by the requisite officers, and have caused their respective corporate seals to be affixed, the day and year first aforesaid.

Said [the designated agent] agrees to receive and hold the bonds referred to in the foregoing contract, for the purposes, and under the provisions and stipulations therein mentioned and contained, and to render to each of said parties a statement, in writing, of the bonds so held by it, when, and as often as any change of the same is made, under the provisions of said contract.

SEC. III. During the last half of the course, the pupils will be required to gain practical experience in teaching by substituting in the District Schools.

SEC. IV. The principal of the Normal School shall exercise the same supervision over the "School of Practice" connected with the Normal School, as is exercised by the principal of a first-class District School over the school placed under his immediate charge.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE
ST. LOUIS PUBLIC LIBRARY.

SECTION I. The Board of Managers of the Public Library shall consist of sixteen members, nine of whom shall be appointed annually by the School Board, and seven elected annually by such life members of the Library as are over eighteen years of age. The Board of Managers at any reasonable time before each election shall select a committee of five life members of the Library, not members of the Board of Managers, who shall be requested to nominate a ticket of fourteen persons from among the life members of the Library, who are eligible for such election. No ballot shall contain more than seven names, and such ballot must be presented by the member voting it.

SEC. II. The nine members of the Board of Managers to be appointed by the School Board shall consist of the Library Committee of the School Board ex officio.

SEC. III. 1. The election by the life members of the Library shall take place annually on the first Tuesday in May. A notice of the time and place of such election, signed by the President of the Board of Managers, shall be printed in at least one English daily and in one German daily newspaper published in the City of St. Louis, on the day of said election, and on the six days next preceding. A similar notice shall be kept posted in a prominent place in the Library room during one week next preceding said election. Should an election for any cause, not take place on the day appointed, as soon thereafter as may be, an election may be held in lieu thereof. No such election, whether it be annual, deferred, or special, shall be valid, unless such notices shall have been given. All members of the Board of Managers shall hold their offices until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

2. Elections shall be in charge of two judges of election appointed by the President of the School Board, such appointment to be communicated to them in writing. The polling place shall be open from 10 A. M. until 8 P. M. on the day appointed for the election. The judges shall be furnished with a list of all life members of the Library, and a ballot box shall be provided for the reception of ballots. It shall be the duty of the judges to keep a list of all persons voting. Opposite each name on said list shall be placed a number designating the order in which the ballots are presented. A corresponding number shall be placed on the ballot presented by the voter. Should any persons whom the judges decide to be not qualified to vote, present ballots, their names shall be placed on a separate list with a number corresponding to the number placed on their ballots, which ballots with the list shall be placed in an envelope. In another envelope shall be placed all ballots found in the box which the judges decide to be illegal, together with a list of those voting them. Upon the close of the election the judges shall count the votes cast for each candidate rejecting all illegal ballots. After the ballots are counted, all of them which the judges decide are illegal shall be strung upon a string and placed in the ballot box with the list of those voting them, together with the envelopes above provided for, with their contents. Thereupon the ballot box shall be sealed and put in possession of the Librarian as custodian of the Board of Managers. The judges shall then communicate to the President of the School Board in writing over their signatures, the result of their count. This communication shall contain the number of legal votes cast for each candidate; the number of ballots not accepted, with the reasons for not accepting them; and the number of ballots decided illegal, with the reasons for deciding them illegal. The judges shall be paid by the Board of Managers a reasonable sum for their services.

3. A copy of the certificate of the judges shall be certified by the President of the Board of Public Schools to the Board of Managers at its regular meeting, held next after the election. Upon the receipt of said certificate the Board of Managers shall declare those seven persons elected who shall have received the greatest number of legal votes. Provided, that if five life members shall request it in writing, the Board of Managers shall caused to be opened in its presence the ballot box and the ballots then and there counted. In such a case the Board shall decide the election upon the count then made, ignoring the count of the judges. Thereupon the members elect shall take their seats, and the terms of their predecessors shall expire.

4. Any vacancy created by resignation, death or other cause, shall be filled as speedily as possible by special election, in the same manner as in the case of regular elections.

SEC. IV. Said Board of Managers shall annually, as soon after the annual election as practicable, elect a President and a Vice-President from its own members. In case at any time the offices of President and Vice-President shall both become vacant, the Board of Managers shall appoint a President pro tempore, who shall perform the duties of President until his successor is elected. The Board of Managers shall have the general care and control of said Library, together with the rooms set apart for the use of the same, its fixtures and furniture, and the expenditure of all moneys appropriated, collected, or donated for its use. They may make such By-Laws and Rules for their own government, and in relation to the officers appointed by them, and for the management of the Library, as they may deem expedient and which shall not be inconsistent with these regulations.

SEC. V. 1. The present Librarian shall hold his office until the second Tuesday in January, 1886, and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified. At the regular meeting in January, 1886, or as soon thereafter as may be, and every third year thereafter, the Board of Managers shall appoint a Librarian, who shall hold his office for three years, and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified. The Librarian shall at all times be subject to removal for cause, by a vote of the majority of the whole Board of Managers.

2. Said Board of Managers shall, also, appoint from time to time, such assistants as they may deem necessary for the proper administration of the affairs of the Library under their charge, all said appointments to be subject to the approval of the Board of President and Directors of the St. Louis Public Schools, as provided in Rule 81 of the rules for the government of said last-mentioned Board.

SEC. VI. The terms upon which persons may be admitted to the use of the Library, and the privilege of drawing books for home use, shall be as follows:—

1. The Library and Reading-room shall be free for purposes of reading and reference to all persons who shall conform to the rules and regulations of the same.

2. Any person, resident of the city of St. Louis, may enjoy all the privileges of the Library, except the right to vote at elections for members of the Board of Managers, for a period of six months, upon the payment of one dollar in advance.

3. Any person, resident of the city of St. Louis, may enjoy all the privileges of the Library, except the right to vote at elections for members of the Board of Managers, for a period of one year, upon the payment of two dollars in advance.

The persons specified in the last two preceding paragraphs shall, upon compliance with their provisions, be termed temporary members.

4. Any person, resident of the city of St. Louis, may enjoy all the privileges of the Library, including the right to vote at elections for members of the Board of Managers, during the time of his natural life, while he remains a resident of said city, upon the payment of twelve dollars, in advance.

5. Non-residents of the city of St. Louis shall have the privilege accorded to temporary members of the Library, upon the deposit of three dollars with the Librarian, and the payment in advance of three dollars annually. Upon terminating their memberships, the deposit of three dollars shall be returned to them.

6. Any incorporated Library Association, or other incorporated association, may at the discretion of the Board of Managers become entitled to all the privileges of the Library, accorded to temporary members, subject to the rules and regulations of the Board of Managers, by taking out not less than fifty (50) annual memberships, paying for the same the sum of two dollars ($2) per annum, in advance, for each membership:

Provided, such association assume all the expenses of administration and become responsible for the safe return and proper keeping of the books; and also,

Provided, that the location of such association is approved by the Board of Managers, as suitable for a Branch Library.

7. Perpetual memberships, and all other memberships, heretofore granted by the Library, and now existing, shall continue during the term for which they were granted.

8. All persons who are now, or who may hereafter become members or officers of the Board of President and Directors of the St. Louis Public Schools, shall be entitled for life to all the privileges of the Library.

SEC. VII. 1. All certificates of membership or subscriptions heretofore issued under the authority of the Trustees of the Public School Library Society of St. Louis, shall entitle the holders thereof to all the privileges in the use of the Library and Reading-room for the time or times severally specified in such certificates; and all certificates heretofore issued under the authority of said Trustees of said Library Society as being good for one dollar, in payment of life-membership fee, shall be received by the Board of Managers in lieu of money under the provisions of Section VI.

2. The said Board of Managers may, at their discretion and in consideration for valuable services rendered, or valuable donations made to the Library, or for other considerations, confer the privilege of membership for a time or for life upon such persons as in their judgment are deserving thereof. Memberships in the Library thus conferred, shall be termed Beneficiary Memberships, and persons holding them shall not be entitled to vote at elections for members of the Board of Managers.

3. All memberships shall be non-transferable. Life memberships shall be suspended during the non-residence in the city of St. Louis of the persons to whom they are issued.

4. Certificates of membership signed by the President and countersigned by the Librarian, shall be issued to all persons entitled thereto.

SEC. VIII. All persons shall, in their use of the Library and Reading-room, be subject to the rules and regulations governing the same.

SEC. IX. The books, pamphlets and other property of the Henry Ames Library of the O'Fallon Polytechnic Institute are hereby placed under the control and management of the said Board of Managers. Such books and pamphlets shall be distinguished from the books and pamphlets of the Public Library, by their catalogue numbers and by a label containing the words, "Henry Ames Library of the O'Fallon Polytechnic Institute," but otherwise shall be subject to classification and use, the same as the books and pamphlets of the Public Library.

SEC. X. 1. The Librarian appointed by said Board of Managers shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, give bond to the Board of President and Directors of the St. Louis Public Schools in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient security to be approved by said Board of President and Directors, for the faithful performance of his duties as Librarian of said Board of Managers.

2. The depository of the funds of the Public Library shall be the Board of President and Directors of the St. Louis Public Schools, with whose Treasurer shall be deposited all moneys received by the Board of Managers for the use of the Library. All warrants upon the funds of the Library shall be signed by the President of the Board of Managers and the Librarian. The warrants shall be the Treasurer's vouchers for payments so made.

3. The Treasurer shall report to the Board of Managers quarterly or oftener, if required, the amounts received and paid out by him as above prescribed. And no warrant upon the Treasurer shall be signed by the President as above stated, except in pursuance of the action of the Board of Managers.
